ARTICLE III: GENERAL CONDITIONS

- a) The aforementioned scope and areas of cooperation shall be realized by means of mutual consultation and exchange of relevant information between the appropriate institutional officials/departments/divisions of the two Parties.
- b) Neither Party nor its personnel shall be considered as an official, employee, representative or joint partner of the other Party. Neither Party shall enter into contract or any other agreement on behalf of the other Party.
- c) Both Parties subscribe to the policy of equal opportunity and shall not discriminate on the basis of gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation.
- d) Any activity to be taken up shall be completed within a stipulated time as agreed upon by the Parties.
- e) This MoU will provide the foundation and framework for later particular project(s)/program(s), developed by academic and administrative units/departments of both Parties for which a separate MoU will be signed.
- f) This MoU sets forth the intentions of the Parties to foster collaboration and cooperation in areas of mutual interests without legally binding commitments.
- g) If both Parties later agree to undertake specific joint projects with legally binding obligations, separate written agreements for such project(s) shall be made with mutual consent on each Party's contributions, responsibilities, and financial implications.

1. MODE OF OPERATION

Each Party shall designate a coordinator or a group of persons for coordinating and carrying out any activity of mutual interest.

2. FINANCIAL COMMITMENT

a) Nothing in this MoU shall be deemed a commitment or obligation of funds from either Party. Financial implication, if any, for carrying out any activity shall be negotiated and agreed upon in writing by the Parties through a separate agreement.

b) The host Party will waive application fees, entrance fees, and tuition fees of the exchange students up to 50 %. Transportation, accommodation, food and other personal costs, etc. will be the personal responsibilities of the students themselves.

However, the host Party may charge an amount for providing a laboratory, library, internet facilities, etc. The amount will be intimated at the time of making an offer.

3. COMPLIANCE

Both Parties shall be responsible for compliance with and implementation of respective national, state, regulatory and/or licensing agencies during the term of MoU, which shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the applicable laws and statutes of the respective Parties, and shall be contingent upon both Parties for securing and maintaining all necessary accreditation, approvals and/or licenses.

4. PROPERTY RIGHTS

Both Parties shall jointly share the outcome of collaborative research works in terms of authorship, patent, copyrights, and other intellectual property rights.

5. ASSIGNMENT

Neither Party shall be permitted to assign or transfer any interest in this MoU without the prior written approval of the other Party.

6. LEGAL STATUS

a) This MoU is not to be construed as creating legal relationship between the Parties. It is only a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial cooperation.

7. TERM OF AGREEMENT

This MoU shall become effective from the date of signing by the official representatives of the Parties and shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years. The MoU may be renewed and extended upon mutual agreement prior to the date of expiry.

8. TERMINATION

a) Termination of this MoU may be affected upon deliberation by both Parties. Either Party has the right to terminate the MoU by giving six-month notice in writing to the other Party.

(b) Upon termination, any faculty or student(s) involved in any collaborative program as set forth in separate written agreement(s) shall be permitted to complete the program unless both Parties mutually agree to terminate such agreement(s).

9. AMENDMENT

This MoU may be amended by mutual agreement of the Parties.
